Make your pocket verse cards

Eight different complete verses, sized for a pocket, lunchbox or small bag. Start with one verse and carry it through the day.

Combined Print Guide: parent pages 1-3; blanks 4 and 6; holder 5; print test 7-8.

1 Choose one design

Color file: Rainbows, pages 1-2; Moon and Stars, 3-4; Dolphins, 5-6; Unicorns, 7-8; Camouflage, 9-10. Or use the two-page Ink Saving file. Every design has the same eight verses. Print one pair, not the entire color file.

2 Test your printer first

Use US Letter (8½ × 11 in), portrait, Actual size or 100%, and two-sided printing with Flip on long edge. Turn off Fit, booklet mode and multiple pages per sheet. Print the two-page Alignment Test on plain paper. Hold it to a light: matching numbers, TOP labels and outlines should align.

3 Print and cut

Use paper or cardstock your printer supports; check its duplex weight limit. Print your chosen pair. Cut at the front corner marks for eight 3¼ × 2 in cards. The rounded border is decorative. Keep the small card IDs so fronts and backs stay matched.

No two-sided printer?

Print the front and back pages separately, one-sided at 100%. Cut them out. Match each DEU number and verse reference; glue pairs back to back with top edges aligned. Let dry fully. Manual paper refeeding varies by printer, so test plain paper first.

Optional lamination

Cut paper cards out first. Use a pouch approved for your laminator. Leave at least ¼ in between cards and ⅛ in clear film around every paper edge, or more if the pouch maker requires. A 2 × 4 arrangement fits a Letter pouch with these gaps. Laminate and cool as directed. Trim with at least ⅛ in of sealed film around each card; never cut through the seal.

A grown-up handles the tools

An adult should operate the laminator, trimmer and sharp scissors. Round sharp plastic corners without opening the seal. Avoid small rings or loose fasteners for young children. Keep cards away from babies and children who put objects in their mouths.

Physical printing, holder assembly and lamination have not been tested. Check plain-paper alignment and holder fit before cardstock or lamination.

Learn one verse at a time

08 Deuteronomy 32:3 | Praise God's greatness

Read the surrounding passage, then take turns saying a short phrase. Turn the card to the reference side and try recalling the verse. Revisit it tomorrow before adding another. More word meanings and context are on the next page.

Understand words and context

These notes help families read the complete verses together. The explanations and questions are teaching aids, separate from the Bible text.

Listen and remember

Moses teaches Israel before the people enter the promised land. Read Deuteronomy 6:4-9 together. Wholehearted love for God includes remembering his words and talking about them in daily family life. The complete verse 6:6 ends with a semicolon because the sentence continues in verse 7.

Give thanks and show care

The good land in 8:10 refers to Israel's promised land, not a guarantee that every family will always have plenty. In 10:19, Moses calls Israel to love people from other countries and remember living in Egypt. Verse 18 describes God's care through food and clothing.

Be fair and praise God

Deuteronomy 16:18-20 addresses Israel's judges: gifts and favoritism must not bend justice. In 32:3, Moses calls the gathered people to praise God in the opening of a song. Read 31:30 and 32:1-4 for that setting.

Words to explore

Yahweh: God's name, often printed LORD in other English Bibles.

Might: Strength.

Bless God: Praise or give thanks to God.

Behold / therein: Pay attention / in it.

Foreigner: Someone living away from their own country.

Pervert justice / partiality: Twist what is right / unfair favoritism.

Bribe: A gift meant to buy an unfair decision.

Proclaim / ascribe greatness: Announce / recognize and praise how great God is.

Practice gently together

Talk about one verse at a meal or bedtime. Thank God for a gift, welcome someone new or discuss a fair way to settle a disagreement. Keep learning patient and joyful, with room for children's questions.
